6. In addition to the persons named above, resistance leader Preng Gjergj Kegi and his nephew were reportedly captured by Government forces in 1948. Source also reported the "execution" of Bajram Bajraktari and the death of Bajraktar Marka Ndue. 25X1A
7. Other opposition chieftains still believed to be in Albania include the following:
- |                          |                         |
|--------------------------|-------------------------|
| a. Ndue Bajraktari       | g. Ded Vuka             |
| b. Ndue Bib Prandoca     | h. Bib Marka Biba       |
| c. Marka Juke Bajraktari | i. Preng Dod Gjini Kegi |
| d. Gjon Gjeta            | j. Llesh Melyshi        |
| e. Marka Bib Vokri       | k. Mark Melyshi         |
| f. Ded Kej Belezhi       |                         |
8. In addition to the government stores, private stores have also been set up; the latter profit by the wretched conditions of the people, who lack clothing and shoes.
9. The Government has demanded that everyone must contribute to a forced loan in the amount of 1,000 leks or more, depending upon his ability to pay. This forced loan is to be repaid with interest in 20 years.
10. The DMP had reportedly turned its police functions over to civilians who serve without pay, uniforms or shoes.
11. On 5 January 1950 the Kryeziu sawmill caught fire, and those who were supposed to extinguish the fire threw gasoline on it instead of water. A large number of persons were arrested. The damage is estimated at 10,000,000 leks.
